

We are recruiting for Apprentice Gas Engineers

Aaron Services

With more than 37 years' experience, Aaron Services is a market leading, multi-fuel heating and hot water specialist, working almost exclusively within (domestic and commercial) social housing properties. With a growing client base and more than 50 current long-term contracts, we are on the lookout for Apprentice engineers to join our busy teams. Across the East of England and the Midlands, we install more than 7,500 new heating systems and service more than 120,000 properties per annum.

Working with our certified engineers, as an apprentice you will be attending tenants' homes learning how to carry out service, repair, and installation work of renewable energy systems. You will need to have a friendly and professional attitude, building strong relationships with our clients and their tenants.

We are committed to developing talent at all levels, building a strong diverse workforce, and making Aaron Services an inclusive place to work.

Key Responsibilities

- Completion of allocated works in conjunction with, and adhering to all Company Procedures, Legislation and Manufacturer's Instructions and under guidance from mentor engineers where appropriate.
- Complete consistent, high-quality work and display a professional attitude, encouraging good relationships with both Tenants and Clients.
- Provide updates on progress of work to the appropriate people, communicating issues and delays to ensure these are dealt with appropriately and not impacting on tenants or clients.
- Complete the required paperwork for each task as per Company Procedures, complying with Legislation where applicable.
- Drive your own learning, ensuring college requirements are fulfilled and attend additional internal training sessions including Toolbox Talks, and Meetings.

Essential Requirements:

- Functional Skills Level 2 English & Maths
- Friendly and professional attitude to encourage good relationships with our team and Clients.
- Participate in appropriate training activities and encourage and support staff in their development and training.
